EVERY SUCCESSFUL EFFORT AT SAVING INVOLVES TWO IMPORTANT ELEMENTS: FIRST, THE STARTING, HOWEVER SMALL; AND, SECOND, CONSISTENCY AND SYSTEMATICALLY KEEPING AT IT. THE ESSENCE OF THESE VITAL ELEMENTS ARE EMBRACED AND MADE EASY OF ACCOMPLISHMENT BY OUR

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS DEPARTMENT WHICH OFFERS THE FOLLOWING PLANS.

As a result of discipline established through fire drills, 345 children were marched out of a burning school building to safety at Gulfport a few days ago. Order was maintained during the exit, although some of the children had to lean through windows to get fresh air on the way out. Teachers and others whose forethought made this happy result possible are entitled to the highest praise. Every school should have frequent fire drills.

SAVING FOR VARIOUS PURPOSES.

The different ways bank Christmas Savings Clubs are put to good use is a matter of interest. It is well known one man who pays over thousand dollars annually in taxes accumulates the amount in this way. From week to week he saves and when December rolls around he is free from worry as to where his tax money is coming from. Another man is saving in this way his first $500 to buy a home. He is not long married and his aim and purpose are worthy. Another is saving thus that his boy might later go to college and thus his offspring and the pride of the family is assured of an education. And so on for so many purposes. To he who has never tried to save money this might be the beginning for much in future. And of the satisfaction of having a nest egg for funds for the future there can be no overestimating. Benjamin Franklin lives for many virtues he practiced while in the flesh, but of all none stand out more prominently and will live longer aside from his patriotism than his practice of economy and saving. We do not suggest, for money well spent is an investment. Spend with your wife, your children, your home.

George W. Carver, a negro scientist of Tuskegee Institute, whose discoveries in creative chemistry have won for him a fellow-ship in the Royal Society of Great Britain, claims to have developed 118 commercial products from sweet potatoes, 176 from peanuts, 85 from pecans and more than 300 from clay. He believes that his discoveries will produce an economic revolution in the South and attributes his success to the aid of Divine Providence.

Naturally you have heard of "The Covered Wagon," the Great American Epic Picture. The scenes below give but a faint idea of its glories.

The heart of every real American thrills at "The Covered Wagon"; the fame of this wonderful picture has swept the whole wide world.

The fording of the river by the mile-long Wagon Train in "The Covered Wagon" is said to be the most spectacular scene ever photographed.

"THE COVERED WAGON"

It seems almost superfluous to tell Americans anything further about "The Covered Wagon," which is the best known, as well as the best motion picture ever made.

Although "The Covered Wagon" unfolds a most heart-warming love-story amid its atmosphere of thrilling adventure, the significance of this monumental movie goes far beyond that of any other over-drama ever produced.

The spirit of "The Covered Wagon" is the spirit of America. The raw courage, the virility, the amazing adventures and hardships of the pioneer men and women who opened up the West.

Although "The Covered Wagon" was made in a studio, Out in the Western Desert, ninety miles from a railroad, 5,500 actors, including 2,000 full-blooded Indians, worked four months to film this sincere and documentary.

"The Covered Wagon" ran two years on Broadway, 34 weeks in Los Angeles, 23 weeks in Chicago, and similar periods in other cities. See the Indian fight, the nine-mile prairie fire, the fording of the river, the buffalo stampede in "The Covered Wagon"—drink in the in-tenately patriotic spirit of the picture—and you'll know you've had the time of your life!

NEW WONDERS.

Dr. Allen W. Freeman, of Johns Hopkins, spoke encouragingly regarding a new compound for destroying germs of tuberculosis, in a recent report. The compound has been named "sanochrysine" and is the product of a Danish bacteriologist. Future tests confirm those already made, it is declared that the treatment of tuberculosis will be revolutionized.

What is said to be the largest meteorite to reach earth from the depths of space has been found in the desert region of North Africa and has a volume of about 160,000 cubic yards. M. LaCroix, a French geologist who has examined the meteorite, states that it contains some rare metals.

Signor Flamma, the Italian inventor, who has produced a device for directing flying machines by radio, claims that his invention may be applied to automobiles, ships and other motor driven carriers, as well as airplanes and dirigibles. He predicts the use in the near future of freight-carrying aircraft to cross the English Channel.

STOP THAT BACKACHE!

Many Bay St. Louis Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Bay St. Louis resident says:

Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, Main street, says: "I used Doan's Pills when my back ached and my kidneys were disordered and acted irregularly. Doan's Pills cured me, as the trouble has not returned."

Mrs. Bourgeois is only one of many Bay St. Louis people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy. Ask distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS. The same Mrs. Bourgeois had the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. ### City Managers

New Orleans Item, November 28.

Few realize the growth of the City Manager plan in the United States. Cincinnati is the latest city to adopt that form of government. About 300 municipalities, with 5,000,000 citizens, have adopted the plan. These cities include: Cleveland, Dayton, Pasadena, San Diego, Wichita, Portland (Me.), Grand Rapids, Springfield (O.), Knoxville, Beaumont, Norfolk, Charleston and Wheeling (W. Va.). Cleveland is the largest, with a population of more than 800,000.

Other cities interested in the plan are sending representatives to these cities to study it in operation. The idea spreads. It works well and in harmony with government by commission. Many regard it as a logical development of commission government. If its successful application in these 300 cities continues, within a few years it will be the popular form of municipal government. As matters stand it is giving the ward politicians something to think and worry about.

ABOUT WOMEN.

Queen Marie of Rumania is an accomplished actress and frequently plays in a variety costume before her peasant subjects. She spends much of her time on the royal farm and is a great lover of horses.

"Princess Nellie," a circus midget whose home is in Syracuse, N. Y., has a ten month old baby daughter more than half as tall as the mother.

Miss Evelyn Brodstone, a former Nebraska country girl, recently became the wife of Lord William Vestey, known as the "meat king" of the British empire, for whose firm she worked as a stenographer for several years, first in Chicago and New York and later in London.

Miss Vera Bloom, the talented daughter of Congressman Bloom, of New York, is the author of "The Life of Emperor Eugenie," recently published, though she is only 19 years of age.

STANISLAUS ECHOES.

Fleas Defeat Fleas in Fifth Annual Junior Gridiron Classic.

The season's last football game was played on the College campus Sunday, November 30th, between the Fleas and the Flies. Much to the surprise of the spectators, the Fleas gained a 13-0 decision over their hereditary foes.

The gridiron brains exhibited by both teams during the contest augurs well for the future of football at S. S. C. If these miniature Rock-a-Chaws stick together long enough, the local institution is booked to humble Notre Dame in 1932.

The first touchdown came in the second quarter, when, after a series of vicious bucks, the Fleas brought the pugskin to the 3-yard line, and Colotta went over for a touchdown.

In the fourth period a succession of line plunges by Schiro, "Cotton" Blaize and Glover placed the ball within striking distance of the goal line, and Glover fell over the line for the 10-yard score. The Fleas took the lead, 10-0, but they were completely outclassed by their heavier opponents, "Cotton" Blaize was the outstanding star for the Fleas, while Jones did stellar work for the Flies.

The game was played for the benefit of the Christmas Tree Fund, and the nice sum of $30.40 was turned over to the committee in charge.

A bevy of pretty girls, with Anna Mae Blaize as leader, cheered for the buzzing Fleas, while leading the yell for the hopping Flies.

During the intermission Anna Mae Blaize and her fair squad marched out on the field, executed a brilliant snake dance and entertained the fans with some lively songs.

33RD YEAR—NO. 46.

WHY MISSISSIPPI IS INDUSTRIALLY A POOR STATE

How Mississippi Has Suffered By Narrow-Sighted Vision—Through Oppressive Taxation and Unreasonable Legislation State Has Lost Much.

For each hour that the Standard Oil Company operates in Louisiana during the next year it will pay $66,18 taxes to the tax collector of East Baton Rouge parish. And that figure is based on a 24-hour day. The Standard Oil is the largest taxpayer in the State.

The Standard Oil assessment is nearly $41,000,000, or 25 per cent more than the entire city of Baton Rouge. Its tax bill in this parish amounts to $579,604.43. This amounts to $1,587.68 a day, or $1.10 a minute. These figures include only the State, parish and district taxes paid in East Baton Rouge and not the taxes on their property in other parts of the State. Of the taxes paid, more than one-third go to the State.

The foregoing appeared in numerous newspapers the past few days, as a press telegram, and tells a remarkably interesting story. In fact, it carried a lesson of import and one that Mississippi can well directly profit thereby.

This might just as well have been said of Mississippi as Louisiana, says the Jackson Clarion-Ledger, but for the fact that our short-sighted policy has made beggars of us—beggars for enough revenue to meet expenses.

The Standard Oil corporation at one time wanted to locate a similar plant in the State of Mississippi, but our well known aversion to trusts and corporations stood in the way, and the plant went to Louisiana. Had we been a little more wide-awake, a bit more tolerant and considerably more wiser, we would now have been reaping the benefit of this big plant, not only in the way of tax revenue, but in employment furnished a multitude of people at good wages.

More than once Mississippi has suffered by the same narrow-sighted vision. We cannot see anything but evil in a combination of capital when it is a well known fact that no big business can be established without the combined efforts of more than one man and the uniting of the capital of many men, except in rare instances.

Mississippi passed up the Great Southern Lumber Company, which afterwards located its plant at Bogalusa, juts over the line in Louisiana, and has since paid hundreds of thousands of dollars into the treasury of that State and hundreds of thousands more into the pockets of citizens of Louisiana, who in turn have paid their pro rata share of the taxes of the State, while Mississippi's forests have been denuded to make Louisiana rich.

This is the past history of Mississippi, but the eyes of her people are being opened, as was indicated by the recent vote on the tax amendment, which proposed for the taxing of incomes and inheritances. The people are beginning to realize that the man with money is not always a ghoul, nor are all corporations soulless. They are the revenue producers, and, under proper regulations, great benefactors. Our people seem to be profiting by their blunders in years gone by, and are preparing to take advantage of the opportunities that offer in the future.

Let capital know that it will be welcomed and it will flock where the greatest opportunities are. Mississippi possesses many reasons for the investment of capital. Because of our provincial laws, little has been done to develop the resources of the State, and rich rewards await those who are willing to use their capital, brain and energy in the effort to place Mississippi where she rightfully belongs—in the vanguard of States, industrially as well as agriculturally.

DOINGS OF WEEK BAY HIGH SCHOOL

B. H. S. Are Not Slackers. The students of B. H. S. are not slackers, and they never have been. But perhaps this year all are not taking advantage of the numerous opportunities afforded in high school.

Why is it that the Home Demonstration Club for Girls did not get a 100 per cent membership? It is because a great number of girls are not taking advantage of an opportunity that may never return. Or is it because they do not realize that it is an opportunity?

Why is it that every student in B. H. S. does not feel it a privilege to support the basketball team? Part of the student body is doing all it can. Are you?

Why is it that you are not taking advantage of every opportunity that comes your way? Do you realize that you will not be in high school always? Tomorrow is indefinite, the Standard Oil is the largest taxpayer in the State.

More than once Mississippi has suffered by the same narrow-sighted vision. We cannot see anything but evil in a combination of capital when it is a well known fact that no big business can be established without the combined efforts of more than one man and the uniting of the capital of many men, except in rare instances.

Mississippi passed up the Great Southern Lumber Company, which afterwards located its plant at Bogalusa, juts over the line in Louisiana, and has since paid hundreds of thousands of dollars into the treasury of that State and hundreds of thousands more into the pockets of citizens of Louisiana, who in turn have paid their pro rata share of the taxes of the State, while Mississippi's forests have been denuded to make Louisiana rich.

This is the past history of Mississippi, but the eyes of her people are being opened, as was indicated by the recent vote on the tax amendment, which proposed for the taxing of incomes and inheritances. The people are beginning to realize that the man with money is not always a ghoul, nor are all corporations soulless. They are the revenue producers, and, under proper regulations, great benefactors. Our people seem to be profiting by their blunders in years gone by, and are preparing to take advantage of the opportunities that offer in the future.

Let capital know that it will be welcomed and it will flock where the greatest opportunities are. Mississippi possesses many reasons for the investment of capital. Because of our provincial laws, little has been done to develop the resources of the State, and rich rewards await those who are willing to use their capital, brain and energy in the effort to place Mississippi where she rightfully belongs—in the vanguard of States, industrially as well as agriculturally.

BAY EASTERN STAR HOLDS LODGE OF SORROW.

Memorial Services Told Thursday Night at Masonic Temple to Memory of Departed Loved Ones. Memory of Six Departed Ones Honored.

Bay St. Louis Order of Eastern Star held a Lodge of sorrow at the Masonic Temple, in Main street, Thursday evening. Members of the order, as well as members of the Masonic fraternity and a number of invited friends, were present in large number to do honor to the memory of six who have gone before.

It was indeed a beautiful thought and the ceremony was impressive and lasting. Mrs. John Osoinach, as worthy matron of the Eastern Star, and Mr. E. S. Drake, worthy patron, said in the east, while Mr. Drake conducted the ceremony of the evening. Rev. Galloway, pastor of the First Methodist Church, invoked the blessing of the evening and closed the ceremony with prayer. Mrs. Esmeralda Brown von Droz.

The eulogies were simple in expression, but eloquent in meaning, and during the evening there was hardly a dry eye in the gathering.

Mr. Drake paid tribute to the memory of Rev. Dr. F. P. Duffy, lamented rector of Christ Episcopal Church; Mrs. Fred A. Wright spoke of the beautiful life of Mrs. Sophia Ladner; Dr. Jas. A. Evans told of the unselfish and useful life of Dr. W. E. Manar; Miss Marian Engman bade with tender and loving tribute to the young life of Mrs. Mary McDonald Kittrell; Mrs. Osoinach told of the virtues and loving character of Mrs. Esmeralda Brown von Droz.
